NAME .....

Journal like Terry

"The first few miles were the usual torture.
My foot was blistered bad, but my stump wasn't too bad.
Today I had tremendous support. Everybody honked and waved.
People all over looked out of their homes and stores and cheered me on."

- Terry Fox | Friday, June 6th, 1980 | Day 56 | Bristol, NB

Terry wrote about his successes and struggles in his journal every day during The Marathon of Hope. Use the space below to write about a challenge you want to overcome.